

Development and Communications Internship Application

Name:

Address:

Telephone Number:

E-Mail Address:

1. How did you hear about PeacePlayers International?
2. Why are you interested in the Development and Communications Internship?
3. List any experiences you may have with regards to development and communications, specifically: fundraising, grassroots organizing, social media, event planning, research, office work and database management.
4. Give an example of a time that you improved on an established way of doing something.
5. Tell me about a situation where you had to do research and analyze the results for a complex assignment.
6. This internship requires at least 20 hours a week. If you are currently working or in school, please explain how you would manage your schedule to be part of this internship.
7. This position is located in Washington, DC. If you are not currently located in Washington, please explain how you plan to participate in this internship.
8. What do you want to be when you grow up?